

Qualified Teacher of Humanities
RE or History
Required from August 2022
Full Time, Permanent

We are delighted to offer this exciting opportunity for an outstanding and inspirational Teacher of Humanities to join our team of committed teaching professionals at Hinckley Academy from August 2022.

This is an exciting time to join The Futures Trust. The Trust is passionate about building brighter futures for the young people who attend its schools, and is a rapidly growing and successful Multi Academy Trust driven by a set of compelling values:

- 1. Learners First – young people, staff, leaders, governors and trustees totally focused upon the educational benefit of our learners within a safe and supportive environment
- 2. It's about learning – young people, staff, leaders, governors and trustees totally focused upon developing and improving learning underpinned by harmonious and trusting relationships
- 3. No Barriers – no excuses, only support to ensure young people, staff, leaders, governors and trustees maximise the academic achievement of learners whilst enabling them to develop and flourish as well rounded individuals

With an aptitude for overcoming barriers to learning, the successful candidate will be a positive, professional role model for learners and colleagues and will work independently and collaboratively with colleagues to raise aspirations and attainment.

Staff at Hinckley Academy are supported by experienced Teachers, Middle and Senior Leaders who commit generously of their time to train and develop colleagues. We pride ourselves on a culture of collaboration, support and success, and offer focused CPDL for all staff based on their future aspirations.

The Trust has a proven track record of developing excellent Teachers and Leaders, fully funds Masters research and offers a range of outstanding leadership development opportunities, including collaboration across the Trust.

Why work for the Trust?

The Trust recognises that people's needs will change throughout their working lives and is committed to developing and delivering working practices and policies that are responsive to this. In addition to opportunities for professional development the Trust offers attractive reward and benefits packages including competitive rates of pay, access to the Teachers' Pension Scheme, online discount at retail, travel, theme park and other leisure providers, policies to support family and carer commitments, Occupational Health services and career pathways across the Trust.

Closing date: Sunday 15th May 2022

Please note that all applications must be received on an application form. We do not accept CV's. Applications should be returned to recruitment@thefuturestrust.org.uk or to Human Resources, Hinckley Academy, Butt Lane, Hinckley, Leicestershire. LE10 1LE.

The Futures Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and requires all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidates for all positions will be subject to an enhanced DBS check.
